

About our Church

Saint Thomas the Apostle Romanian Orthodox Church is a "spiritual home" to people from many diverse backgrounds: Romanians, Albanians, Macedo-Romanians, Americans, Greeks, and others. While for most, the common language is English, you will also hear hymns and prayers in other languages, and enjoy the diversity of our traditions, foods, and experiences. Orthodox Christians maintain unbroken continuity with the ancient, historical Christian Church. All Orthodox Churches, though each has its own unique personality, are united in faith, one baptism, and one hope - in our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Our Creed of Faith is the one established by the Ecumenical Council in Nicaea in 325 A.D.
